

There should be no dilution of the TCPA. The clause which states that more restrictive state laws are not pre-empted by TCPA should be preserved. Telemarketer attempts to dilute TCPA should be rebuffed. This includes attempts to outlaw New Jersey's more restrictive telemarketing laws, and attempts to create an "established business relationship" exception for junk faxes.